

Styles of Representation

11. Realistic depiction of what is seen with the eye is called
A. photography B. 3-d C. realism D. skill
12. Depiction that is based on reality but altered in some way is called
A. Surrealism B. abstraction C. fantasy D. non-objective
13. Depiction that represents no object, only the arrangements of the elements of art is called
A. Surrealism B. abstraction C. fantasy D. non-objective

Color Theory

14. Colors that cannot be mixed are called
A. primary B. secondary C. tertiary D. complementary
15. An equal mixture of a primary and a secondary color is called
A. primary B. secondary C. tertiary D. complementary
16. An equal mixture of a primary and a secondary color is called
A. primary B. secondary C. tertiary D. complementary
17. Opposites on the color wheel are called
A. warm B. cool C. harmonious D. complimentary
18. Three neighboring colors on the color wheel are called
A. warm B. cool C. harmonious D. complimentary
19. A color plus white is called a
A. shade B. mix C. hue D. tint
20. A color plus black is called a
A. shade B. mix C. hue D. tint
21. A color plus its complement is called
A. shade B. tone C. hue D. tint
22. A chart that illustrates how colors are derived is called
A. periodic table B. color wheel C. color chart D. color swatch