Comments:

Siera always makes sure that each student is engaged and stays on task by walking around and personally engages each student. She provides direction and encouragement when a student encounters a problem with the art project. She is quick to engage behavior that is not appropriate for the classroom. Uses positive reinforcement and is teaching right to the end of the class period when the students are lining up. When a student finishes early she has early finisher activities to keep the students engaged during the class time.
